

The ARC is partnering with Galena Canning Company, a renowned local producer celebrated for its artisanal salsas, BBQs, and gourmet products, in a creative fundraising effort. Known for their dedication to quality and tradition, Galena Canning Company offers a range of handcrafted products that reflect the rich culinary heritage of the region. Proceeds from this partnership will support local school districts and community projects, enriching educational programs and providing new opportunities for students and families. This collaboration highlights a mutual commitment to community growth and educational advancement through delicious, locally-crafted goods.
